SHAPE INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM 2022

“Shaping the healthcare workforce to meet the challenges we face in the Asia Pacific – what does this mean for health service educators, researchers and managers?”

Online via zoom

Dates: 11am – 6pm (AEST) 6 – 8 July, 2022

Hosted by the SHAPE Executive in Hybrid Mode via Zoom and two physical locations: Bangkok (Thailand) and Townsville (Australia). Please register via the below links:

Aims:

In an environment of collegiality and openness to provide an opportunity for:

- Health management academics, research students and professionals with an interest in education and workforce development to explore issues and establish networks of academics with similar research interests
- SHAPE members to discuss State and program issues and developments
- Academics and higher degree students to discuss their research ideas, plans and methodologies and explore current and new research and curriculum directions in a supportive environment
- The development of future strategies relating to SHAPE’s objectives

This symposium in particular explores the challenges and opportunities currently facing our healthcare workforce, and the implications to health service educators, researchers and health service managers. We will also hear from presenters about the broader health service management research they are undertaking currently.
